FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRAVEL TO GO RECEIVES A NEW BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU RATING Travel to Go BBB Rating Moves up to an A+

The Better Business Bureau (“BBB”) was created in 1912 and is a corporation consisting of several local business franchises which are based in the United States and Canada. The goal of the BBB is to foster a fair and effective marketplace so that buyers and businesses can work together through trust (what BBB calls “Start With Trust”).

The BBB is great for persons concerned with a potential scam and researching reviews and complaints on a company or individual as the BBB gathers and reports information on business reliability and confidence which serves to alert the public to frauds and scams against both consumers and businesses. They also provide information regarding the ethical practices of a business and act as intermediaries between consumers and businesses in the event there is a need to resolve an outstanding dispute.

The news media at large frequently turns to the Better Business Bureau as an expert and news source regarding a possible scam or scams, complaints, reviews and consumer issues.

Since 1990 Travel To Go has been successfully arranging luxurious vacation resort accommodations for the savvy vacationer worldwide. A California corporation, Travel To Go is a membership vacation services company, licensed as required by the states of California, Florida, and Hawaii.

Travel To Go has been listed with the Better Business Bureau since 1994 and based on BBB files, this business was recently promoted from the rating of “A” to that of “A+” on a scale from “A+” to “F”.

Factors that raised Travel To Go business’ ratings included:

- Length of time that Travel To Go has been operating.
- The successful resolution of complaint(s) filed with the BBB.
- And the fact that the BBB has sufficient background information on Travel To Go.
